FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Noble World Records Announces the Launch of Noble Kids, a Dedicated Platform for Young Achievers

28 October-2026 | International

Noble World Records (NWR) is proud to announce the public launch of Noble Kids, its dedicated online platform for children, parents, schools, and educators, inaugurated by Dr. Mohammad Seraj Ansari, Global Chairman & Editor-In-Chief of NWR and Global Chairman of the World Economic Forum of Asia-Africa.

Available at https://kids.nobleworldrecords.net/, Noble Kids provides a dedicated destination to explore children's activities, discover information about young achievement and learn about applicable record-related opportunities.

The platform aims to encourage children to explore their abilities, build confidence and discover new possibilities, while providing parents and educators with a dedicated online resource.

Families, schools and communities are invited to visit the website and explore its available pages, activities and information.

Participation in any eligible record category remains subject to the applicable criteria, age requirements, safety guidelines and nomination procedures. New Kids' Records title proposals are not currently being accepted.
